

Ochil View Housing Association Social Housing Charter Report 2016/17

Introduction

This is Ochil View's fourth Social Housing Charter Report - a publication written as a requirement of the Scottish Social Housing Charter.

The report contains Ochil View Housing Association's performance for 2016/17 and aims to:

- Advise tenants and other service users of our performance in 2016/17
- Show how this performance compares with other Housing Associations
- Show how this performance compares with our own performance in the past
- Tell you how we intend to improve our performance
- Tell you how you can get involved with Ochil View
- Tell you how you can make comments or ask for more information

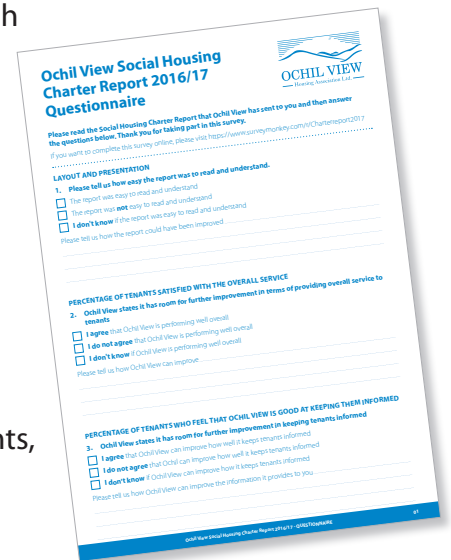

The format of this report and the style, layout and content of this report was agreed with members of our Involved Resident's Group.

We have chosen the Housing Associations to compare with as these are the main housing associations operating in Clackmannanshire and Fife, our area of operation, and Rural Stirling and Forth Housing Associations, our partners in Strathfor Housing Alliance.

We hope the contents of this report are informative.

Tell us what you think

Enclosed with this publication is a Feedback form and prepaid envelope, and the Association and the Involved Resident's Group would be delighted to hear what you think of this report and how it can be improved in future years. You may think that the information would be better presented in a different way, that there may be too much/not enough information or indeed that you want to examine aspects of our performance in more detail. Remember we would be delighted to hear from all our customers (tenants, owner occupiers, applicants, etc.)

If you prefer, you can give feedback online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Charterreport2017>

TENANT SATISFACTION AND COMMUNICATION

Percentage of tenants satisfied with the overall service

What does this mean?

This is the percentage of tenants who feel that, taking the whole service we provide into account, that they are satisfied, or very satisfied, with the service that we provide. This figure has been taken from the results of the Tenant Satisfaction Survey that we carried out in 2016.

Why is it important?

This is important as it shows us that, on the whole, we are providing services that tenants are satisfied with.

Percentage satisfied with overall service

Evaluation of Performance
2017 – 87.19%
Room for Further Improvement

How can we improve?

We believe that the three service elements that are most closely associated with overall satisfaction are “keeping tenant’s informed,” “repairs quality” and “housing quality”. We have set out below a programme of measures to address improvements in our information, repairs service and housing quality, and overall service.

Percentage of tenants who feel their landlord is good at keeping them informed about their services

What does this mean?

This is the percentage of tenants who feel that we are good, or very good, at keeping them informed. We have a number of ways to keep tenants informed including our newsletter, Annual Report, website and Facebook pages and individual contact through letter, phone calls and texts. This figure has been taken from the results of the Tenant Satisfaction Survey that we carried out in 2016.

Why is it important?

It is important that we provide information to you about our services in a way and at a time that suits you.

Percentage of tenants who feel their landlord is good at keeping them informed about their services

Evaluation of Performance
2017 – 84.50%
Room for Further Improvement

How can we improve?

All staff who deal directly with customers have received training on improving the Customer’s experience.

We will publish a list of office closures in advance in our newsletters and send text messages to customers who have registered their mobile number with us at least 48 hours before each closing. Where we need to close for additional days we will only do this in exceptional circumstance.

We have published more frequent and more local newsletters with topical content about what’s happening in your local area.

We will update customers each year in the winter newsletter on the progress we’ve made with our Action Plan.

Percentage of 1st and 2nd stage complaints resolved by the landlord

What does this mean?

When a tenant or other service user is dissatisfied with the service we have given, we record this as a Complaint. Our Complaints Resolution procedure aims to resolve complaints quickly. Stage 1 straightforward complaints are matters that can be resolved within 5 days or less. Stage 2 more complicated complaints require investigation and should be resolved in less than 20 days. Resolving the complaint means reaching a conclusion - it does not mean that the complaint was upheld.

Why is this important?

It is important that we put right any failings in our service. We value complaints and learn from them to improve the standard of service you receive. We should resolve all complaints within the timescales we have set and only take longer if it is necessary.

Percentage of 1st and 2nd* stage complaints resolved by Ochil View

Evaluation of Performance 2017 – 100% (Stage 1) and 95.5% (Stage 2) Performing Well

Percentage of all Complaints Responded to within the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman's timescales

What does this mean?

The Scottish Public Services Ombudsman has set out maximum times for landlords to respond to complaints. These limits are 5 days for straightforward complaints and 20 days for more complicated complaints that need investigation.

Why is this important?

When a service user makes a complaint, it is important that this is dealt with quickly.

Evaluation of Performance 2017 – 95.6% (Stage 1) and 95.24% (Stage 2) Performing Well

Percentage of tenants satisfied with the opportunities given to them to participate in their landlord's decision making process

What does this mean?

We aim to offer all tenants a range of ways to get involved in decision making so that you can get involved in a way that is suitable for you. This figure has been taken from the results of the Tenant Satisfaction Survey that we carried out in 2016.

Why is it important?

We recognise that people will want to be involved in a number of ways. Many tenants may not want to be involved at all, some will be able and willing to come to meetings and make their views known in other ways. We try to accommodate all options.

Percentage of tenants satisfied with opportunities to participate

Evaluation of Performance 2017 - 72.17%
Room for Further Improvement

How can we improve?

Each month, we will contact a sample of tenants who have used our reactive maintenance service, gather their views and act on the results.

HOUSING QUALITY AND MAINTENANCE OF YOUR HOME

Percentage of Homes meeting the Scottish Housing Quality Standard

What does this mean?

The Scottish Housing Quality Standard is the minimum physical standard that housing let by Ochil View should meet. It is set out by the Scottish Government in terms of 55 elements of a property (inside and out). Some homes cannot meet the standard, because of their original design, construction type or size. Sometimes, tenants will refuse to allow us to do work that is needed to meet the standard. In these cases the standard does not apply.

Why is this important?

All homes (except those exempt) must meet the standard by April 2015 and continue to meet it after that date.

Percentage of homes meeting the Scottish Housing Quality Standard

Percentage of homes meeting the Scottish Housing Quality Standard

Evaluation of Performance 2017 - 78.7%
Performing Well

Percentage of tenants satisfied with the quality of their home

What does this mean?

This shows how satisfied tenants are with the general state of repair of their home and the standard of fittings like kitchen and bathroom suites. This figure has been taken from the results of the Tenant Satisfaction Survey that we carried out in 2016.

Why is it important?

We recognise that a home that is in good condition and is kept in a good state of repair is one of the most important services a landlord can provide to tenants.

Evaluation of Performance 2017 – 80.99%
Room for Further Improvement

How can we improve?

Ochil View are investing around £720,000 to improve tenant's homes in 2017/18. This includes the installation of new kitchens in 106 homes and new central heating in 44 homes. Visit our website for full details of how we are improving our housing stock.

Average length of time to complete emergency repairs

What does this mean?

We aim to carry out all emergency repairs within 4 hours of the repair being reported to us.

Why is it important?

An emergency repairs means that life, health or property is at risk. It is important that it is made safe as soon as possible.

Performing Well

Average length of time to complete non-emergency repairs

What does this mean?

We aim to carry out all non-emergency repairs within 1 day (urgent) or 10 days (routine).

Why is it important?

We recognise that having repairs done quickly is an important service to tenants.

Average length of time (days) taken to complete non-emergency repairs

Average length of time taken (days) to complete non-emergency repairs

Evaluation of Performance 2017 – 8.5 days
Room for Further Improvement

How can we improve?

We have appointed a new reactive repairs contractor, Mitie Property Services, to take over our reactive and void repair service from 26th June 2017. The new contract aims to reduce the average time to complete non-emergency repairs.

Percentage of reactive repairs carried out in the last year that were completed Right First Time

What does this mean?

This is the percentage of repairs that were completed without a need to come back and do some work again either because the repair was not diagnosed correctly or because it was not done properly. If several trades are required to complete a repair, all must be done Right First Time to count.

Why is it important?

We recognise that having repairs completed can be inconvenient and may need you to take time off work. We aim to minimise this.

Percentage of properties requiring a gas safety record that had a gas safety check and record completed by the anniversary date

What does this mean?

The Gas Safety (Installation and Use Regulations) 1998 require landlords to maintain all gas appliances and carry out a safety check at least every 12 months.

Why is this important?

If gas appliances are not properly maintained, this is dangerous for people who live in the house.

Percentage of properties with gas safety record renewed by anniversary date

Why is this important?

Carrying out repairs is one of the most important services to tenants, so it is important that we give a good service in this area.

Percentage of tenants satisfied with repair service

Percentage of tenants satisfied with the repairs service

Percentage of tenants who had repairs and maintenance carried out in the last 12 months satisfied with the repairs and maintenance service

What does this mean?

This shows the percentage of tenants who have used the maintenance service recently who were satisfied with the service they received. The 2014 figure was taken from the Customer Satisfaction Survey carried out in 2013. The 2016 figure is from our own survey by card and text message.

How can we improve?

We have appointed a new reactive repairs contractor, Mitie Property Services, to take over our reactive and void repair service from 26th June 2017. The new contract aims to improve the repairs service and long with our monthly survey of repairs satisfaction, give us accurate information about how we can improve the service.

NEIGHBOURHOOD AND COMMUNITY

Anti-social behaviour cases concluded within timescale

What does this mean?

This measures how quickly we resolve reports of anti-social behaviour. Resolving a reported case means that we have decided to take action. The behaviour may continue as sometimes it takes a while for action to become effective.

Why is this important?

Resolving anti-social behaviour quickly helps tenants to feel safe in their homes and neighbourhood.

GETTING GOOD VALUE FROM RENTS AND SERVICE CHARGES

Rent collected as a % of rent due

What does this mean?

This measures how much rent we have collected in the year as a percentage of the rent we charged to tenants. It is possible to collect more than 100% if we collect rent from a previous financial year in this financial year.

Why is it important?

Collecting rent means that we have as much money as possible to invest in our homes and services. Not taking effective action when tenants have rent arrears can help to cause financial problems for tenants and the Association.

VALUE FOR MONEY

Average weekly charge per apartment size

What does this mean?

This is the average charge for each size of property we rent.

Why is it important?

Keeping rents as low as possible means we provide homes which are more affordable and better value for money.

Each year we meet with our Involved Resident's Group and show that our administration costs compare very well with other landlords.
