

Management Committee Members and Biographies

Tom Brown CPFA (Chairperson)

Tom is the current Chairperson having been elected to that position in 2015 following a 16 year period as Treasurer.

Tom serves on the Finance, Audit and Corporate Governance Committee where his lengthy career in finance, in both the public and private sectors, is of considerable benefit to the organisation.

Tom is particularly interested in pensions and this has been of great benefit to the Association over the past few years with employee pension arrangements being subject to review.

Tom is the Association's longest serving Committee Member having been first elected in 1999.

Margaret Baxter (Vice Chairperson)

Margaret is the Vice Chairperson having been elected to that position in 2015. She is also the Convenor of the Customer Services Committee and serves on the Finance, Audit and Corporate Governance and Health, Safety & Human Resources Committees.

First elected in 2010, Margaret is a tenant of one of the Association's properties in Sauchie and part of her work with the organisation involves attending the Involved Residents' Group meetings.

Ewen Cameron LL.B

Ewen has been a Committee member since 2005 and served as Chairperson from 2010 to 2015. He is also the current Convenor of the Health, Safety & Human Resources Committee.

Ewen is a retired solicitor having worked in the legal profession for over 40 years both in an independent legal practice and as a Solicitor with the Scottish Children's Reporter Administration.

Ewen's knowledge and skills of all aspects of the law are vitally important in maintaining the high regard by which the Association is held by various regulatory agencies and other external bodies.

Teresa McNally

Teresa was formally elected to the Committee in 2000 having had various terms as the local authority representative whilst an elected councillor between 1988 and 1999. She is a former Chairperson, having served in that role between 2002 and 2009.

She currently serves on all of the Association's Committees. Teresa is a retired health practitioner and has extensive experience in numerous non-executive roles within local government, central government agencies, the health service and the voluntary sector.

Teresa is currently a Board Director and former Chairperson of the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations.

Bramley Eccles

Bramley re-joined the Committee in 2015 following a break of almost 10 years having also served on the Committee from March 1991 to August 2005.

He currently serves on the Finance, Audit and Corporate Governance and Health, Safety & Human Resources Committees where he brings his considerable retail business experience and skills and strong customer service focus to the decision making process.

Lindsay Stother MCIH, MCM

As a qualified housing professional Lindsay brings a wealth of housing and performance management experience to the Association both from her role as a local government officer and her previous role with the Scottish Housing Regulator.

Having previously worked in Clackmannanshire for a number of years Lindsay has extensive knowledge of the local communities within which the Association operates.

Lindsay has been a member of the Committee for 5 years.

Andrew Campbell BSc (Hons), Dip Housing Studies

Having joined the Committee in 2014, Andrew has experience of both the housing association sector and of local government. He is employed in the role of Delivery Manager within the development services department of a large national housing association.

As a result of the Association having recommenced its new build housing programme, Andrew's knowledge and experience of this aspect of business is proving to be increasingly relevant and important at this time.

Andrew is currently the Vice Convenor of the Customer Services Committee.

John Campbell MCIH

John is a Policy & Equalities Manager with a large national housing association and, having lived in the Clackmannanshire area for many years, he has a strong connection to the local area.

John joined the Committee following an advertising campaign in 2015 and has worked in the housing sector since 2002, firstly in local government and latterly within the housing association sector.

His area of expertise is in policy development and performance management and his current role has given John an excellent understanding of the requirements for sound governance which is an extremely important asset to have on the Management Committee.

John currently serves on the Customer Services Committee.

Graham Collie BSc (Hons) in Quantity Surveying

Graham was elected to the Committee in August 2015 following the aforementioned advertising campaign and at the time worked in the housing association sector in Glasgow as a Property Services Officer/Quantity Surveyor. Graham has since returned to the construction sector.

Graham's understanding of the limitations and challenges faced by the housing association, along with his direct experience of property and components, is an invaluable asset to the Association.

Graham currently serves on the Finance, Audit and Corporate Governance Committee.

Louise Gregory

Louise was elected to the Committee in August 2015 and it was her extensive experience of all aspects of property maintenance which impressed the "judges". In addition Louise has had experience in a variety of voluntary roles, firstly as the Director/Secretary of a small housing management company and latterly as a volunteer with a local sports enterprise.

She also has degree in computing and has worked as a software engineer in the private sector.

Louise serves on the Customer Services Committee.

Lynne Brierley

Lynne joined the Committee in June 2014 and is currently undertaking a BA in Business Studies at university. She has experience of voluntary work most recently with the Citizens Advice Bureau and, as one of our tenants, she provides a strong tenant voice on the Committee.

Lynne previously worked for the Department of Work and Pensions and is therefore able to use this knowledge and experience during consideration of actions required to mitigate the impact of welfare reform on the Association and its tenants.

Lynne currently serves on the Health, Safety & Human Resources Committee.

Aileen Crichton

Aileen is a tenant of the Association who first joined the Committee in August 2007 and, following a period of ill-health, she re-joined the Committee in January 2017.

Aileen's interest in her local community (and of the work of the Association as a whole) means that she is a valuable ambassador at meetings with local tenants' groups.

Aileen serves on all of the Association's Committees.

Sam Brown

Sam is the newest member of the Committee having joined in January 2017 and as a tenant has increased the number of tenants on the Committee to 5.

Sam's particular interest is that of customer services although, as a means of gaining valuable experience across all aspects of business, he currently serves on all of the Association's Committees.
